Next Week’s School Assembly—FRIDAY NEXT!
Parents, carers and students please note that the assembly for next week will be held on FRIDAY, July 25 at 12:30pm in the school hall, because of a clash with debating on the Thursday.

This week’s assembly will go ahead as usual on Thursday.

GREAT NEW COMPETITION
The Maths Bug is here, and is very keen to give away some prizes to smart thinkers.
To enter, fill in the entry sheet on the back of this newsletter, and pop your entry into Croc’s Box.

Wallace Hughes has the honour of being the lucky last GOLD award winner for Term 2. To celebrate the occasion, Wally selected a pack of bubble-makers from the prize box.

The North Happy Yappers are off to a flying start in the District Debating competition after taking on, and defeating South and Barham, in the last week of school.
Team members; Lillie Harford, Emma McCallum, Sophie Stringer and Tess Hunter (pictured above) managed to argue their way through the initial rounds of the round-robin competition, and will now take on the best from Finley, Tooleybuc and Mayrung at North, on Thursday, July 24.

Bush Poets Revving up for Annual Bush Recital
Renowned and legendary, local, bush poet, Alex Allitt will be here on Wednesday to work with North’s three representatives for the annual ‘Bush Poetry Recital’, which is set for August 13 at 7pm.
Sophie Stringer (The Man from Ironbark), Emma McCallum (Clancy of the Overflow) and Stephanie Vickery (The Wild Colonial Boy) will be keen to get a few pointers when it comes to reciting their selected poems, from Deni’s doyen of poetry recital.

Boys’ Soccer Knockout v South
The Northeroos will take on the might of Deni South on Thursday in the next round of the Boys’ State Knockout competition. We wish them well!

Intereach Friends Program Begins for 1/2R
Our friendly friends from Intereach will continue to visit the school in Term 3, this time to deliver their ever-popular ‘Friends’ program to the students of 1/2R.
Lessons will run for an hour each week, throughout the term, and commence this Thursday.
In term 4, it will be 1/2W’s turn to look into all that is great with, being and having a good and reliable friend.
Our thanks to Deidre and her team at Intereach for engaging our students in such a worthwhile program.

Creative Catchment Kids Working with Environmental Guru—Owen Dunlop
The school’s ‘Creative Catchment’ team will have the opportunity to work alongside, environmental guru, Owen Dunlop on Wednesday. Having fine-tuned their book about Adam Dellwo in the last week of term 2, Owen will be on hand to help with the finishing touches.

We Value Values
Well done to the following students who in the last week of Term 2 received awards for being top value at………………

 Andrew Smith—a great friend to everyone in the class
 Kylah Learmonth—showing respect to others and always getting along
 Wallace Hughes—being a great friend
 Will McKern—getting along with others
 Samantha Hughes—a considerate friend
 Sophie Stringer—getting along with others
 April Weir—helping others

This week’s value will be:

‘Being Helpful’
1/2’s National Museum of Interesting Objects was recently opened to the public and drew a bumper crowd of avid, antique, artefactual, art lovers. As you can see from the selection of photos above, the museum pieces were a big hit.
