Bookweek—What’s On This Week

Book Fair
The school’s annual BOOK FAIR will be held this week. On Wednesday students from each class will visit the Book Fair in the library and will complete a wish list of books that they would love to have, and take this home.

Overnight, negotiations begin...“Aww, Mum, can I please have...I promise I’ll clean me cupboards!”

On the Thursday, books will be on sale throughout the day. The school receives a percentage of all sales.

Book Week Parade Reminder
From Miss Bartlett
The school’s annual book week parade is on this Thursday, 21st of August at 2pm. Students can get into the swing of things by dressing up as a favourite book character. The theme this year for Book Week is ‘Reading to Connect’.

Students may come to school dressed as their book week character, or they may get changed at lunch time. Parents are invited to come along, as this is a fun afternoon.

There will be a special lunch available from the canteen on this day. Could children please return their lunch orders for this day as soon as possible.

Moulamein Art camp—Aspire Me
Three of our enthusiastic, senior artists; Stephanie Vickery, Kyeasha Ross and Stevi-Ann Rosenow will attend the Moulamein Art camp on Thursday and Friday, this week.

With Glass Art, Pottery, Painting, Dry Point Etching, Handmade Books and Stamping/Collaging to pick from, the girls are in for a very creative time.

Father’s Day is coming up!

Our kids love this time of the year - picking out that something a little extra special for their Dad’s, Grandpa’s and Uncle’s to let them know how special they are. We are looking for some donations to help with this.

Some ideas: chocolates, lollies, stubby holders, deodorants, mugs, key-rings, tools etc.

If you could kindly wrap in clear cello would be even more appreciated, as you know if we could all do a little to help it would make the load lighter.

All donations can be dropped into the school office by Tuesday 2nd September. The gifts will be sold at the stall on Wednesday 3rd September.

Any questions please contact me 0417515728

Many thanks,
Louise Bashford

Next P&C Meeting

The next meeting of the school’s P&C will be held in the staffroom, on Tuesday, August 26, commencing 6:30pm.

All welcome!

Little Athletics Presentation

What will you learn?

As a result of participation in the workshop as parents/carers, you will gain
- A greater understanding of the impact of autism on children at school, home and in the community.
- Knowledge about how to develop effective parent, school, teacher and community partnerships.
- Strategies on how to:
  - Support children’s participation at school and in the community.
  - Support and manage challenging behaviours.
  - Access local school and community systems.
  - Develop local networks.

Where: Deniliquin RSL Club
       72 End Street, Deniliquin NSW 2710

When: One day workshop on Tuesday 26 August 2014

Time: 9.30 am – 3.00 pm (Registration from 9.00 am)
      Morning tea and lunch provided

The workshop is an opportunity for families to come together to discuss the issues that are important to them about their child/children.
The workshop is a safe environment where participants can talk about autism and other behavioural and learning needs that may be affecting children at home, school and in the community.

Registration opens Tuesday 15 July 2014, and closes 2 days prior.
Registration may stay open until one day before the workshop if spaces are still available, but we strongly recommend that you register as soon as possible.
You will receive a confirmation of your registration.
