Tom McCallum Selected for Riverina Cricket Trials
Promising all-rounder, Tom McCallum has been selected in the DPSSA Cricket squad that will attend the Riverina selection trials on Monday, March 2. Tom was selected for his medium-pace bowling, as well as his batting. Well done, Tommy!

North Basketball Trials
Mrs Rumble will cast an eye over the school’s basketball talent on Thursday, with a view to selecting the North Dribblers to attend the Deni PSSA trials in Moama. Boys and girls in Grades 5 and 6 are eligible to try-out, and should bring along suitable footwear and school sports uniform, on the day.

Tennis Legends
Ace tennis players, Duncan Hughes, Tom Cochrane, Eloise Ritchie and Eimear Gogarty certainly impressed North’s Davis Cup selector, Miss Smith to earn a spot in the North squad that contested the Western Riverina trials at the Deni Lawn Courts, yesterday.
Eloise and Eimear managed to go one better at the actual Western trials, gaining selection in the Western Riverina team which will play in Griffith, in the coming weeks. Nice one!

Hay Swimming Carnival
Swimmers are reminded to take along a towel, togs, sunscreen and a hat to the Hay carnival on Friday. Transport is by private car and parents/carers that are taking children other than their own, and have not completed the necessary documentation to the school, are asked to drop by the office and provide the following:
- Vehicle registration
- Driver’s license
- Vehicle Comprehensive Insurance
- Prohibited Employment declaration (available at school)

Under 7s Swimming Sessions
Kindergarten, Grade 1, and Grade 2 students that are in the under 7 age group, will head to the pool for 2 sessions next week. The first session is on Monday, March 2 from 11:30am-1pm, and the second is on Thursday, March 5 from 9:30am-12:30pm. Transport is by Purtills buses. Students are reminded to come to school in sports uniform on both days, and to bring along sunscreen, a hat (wide brimmed), swimmers, towel and pool entry money.
Parents/carers that can help out on either day, please contact the office or notify organiser, Mrs Hanns.

Canteen News
From Maureen
A big thank you to the ‘Fishing Classic’ committee and Central IGA for their wonderful efforts on the sausage and sno-cone stall at last weekend's classic. The fabulous efforts by one and all, landed a real whopper and a healthy profit of $1210 was reeled in. Also, many thanks to helpers; Daniel Zrajko, Melissa Dudley, Gen Dunmore, Claire Wing, Louise and Errol Bashford, Sue Mulligan, Naomi Ritchie, Andy and Miki Amor, and snag-burner, Hoges.
AND, of course magnificent Maureen!!!

We Value Values
Well done to the following students who last week received awards for being top value at:

DENILIQUIN MOBILE CHILDREN’S SERVICE
Are you looking for care for your child or children in 2015? If so, Deniliquin Mobile Children’s Service may be what you are looking for.
Deniliquin Mobile Children’s Service provides flexible, responsive and innovative services to children and families experiencing social, geographic, cultural or economic isolation. Focusing on the care and education of children, we aim to ensure that children and families in isolated and disadvantaged communities in rural and remote areas have access to high quality and safe children’s services. Our educators pack resources and equipment into a truck and each day they travel to communities to provide care and education in community halls.
We currently run our services at the following venues:

P&C Working Bee–This Sunday
If you have a spare hour or two on Sunday morning, it would be greatly appreciated if you could rock along to the P&C working bee, starting at 9:30am. Some nasty weeds are in need of eradication!!
