Swimming at Hay

Report by Leanne Mulham

Harry and Elena had a great Hay carnival, each taking out the junior champion awards. North school was only 4 or 5 point behind Moama, so we finished 3rd, which is a great effort by our kids. They all tried their best to score points for our school. One day we might beat South. We had lots of overall 3, 4 and 5 results. Abbey Lawson (freestyle), Harry Dudley (freestyle and breastroke), Elena Mulham (freestyle, breastroke, butterfly, backstroke and medley), Charlotte Strong (breastroke) and Chloe Paton (freestyle) all got through to Albury plus the junior girls relay team, comprising: Elena, Sophie Murray, Hannah Dunmore and Jemma Smith.

What A Working Bee

Last Sunday’s working bee must have broken all previous attendance records. It was fantastic to see so many kind-hearted souls, chipping away at the school grounds, and what a magnificent job was done. The school looks fantastic after its make-over.

Many, many thanks to all that were able to come along.
