SCIENCE WEEK
Scientwists Performance This Friday
A visit from the Scientwist team will bring Science Week to an explosive end on Friday. The cost for students is $3, or $4 (for 5/6S), payable at the office.

Tournament of Minds Teams at Shepparton
We wish our 3 teams all the best as they head to Shepparton this weekend for the big finale—the regional trial. A lot of hard work, and more than a bit of fun, has been part of the journey; a journey that will continue, should any of the teams come away with top prize.

Golden Greats
April Weir and Paraya Moore have taken home GOLD awards following last week’s assembly. Nice one!

The Northies finished an honourable 5th at the District Athletics carnival last Thursday. After a bleak, miserable and ominous day on Wednesday, the sun almost shone, making convenor, Miss Smith, a very relieved individual.

Students selected to represent the DPSSA at the regional carnival on August 31 are:

- Elena Mulham—long jump, shot put, discus, relay
- Adrian Mulham—discus
- Tabitha Napier—discus
- Ben Dunmore—100m
- Hannah Dunmore—200m, 800m, relay
- Holly Amor-relay
- Kylah Learmonth-relay
- Charlotte Strong—800m
- Amy Weir—100m

Elena (shot put & discus) and Adrian (discus), did exceptionally well, smashing a few long-lasting records. Elena was also named as Junior Girl Champion.

Miss Smith, who did magnificently on her maiden athletics voyage, will now back-up as district manager at the regional event.

Book Week Parade 2015
On Thursday the 27th of August, we will be having our Book Week parade. The day is all about celebrating books and stories. The theme for this year's Book Week is “Books light up our world”.
Children may come to school on this day, either dressed as something to do with this theme, or they could come as their favourite character from fiction.
The parade will be held at 2.00 pm. Parents are invited to attend.
The Book Fair will also be open on that day in the school library, so that children may purchase books.
There will also be a special lunch from the canteen that day.
Hope to see many of you there, at our 2015 Book Week Parade.

Could this be, photoshop-expert and discus-chucker, Adrian Mulham’s vision of the perfect school teacher?
Yet to decide whether, Mr Hogan makes Miss Smith look good, or, Miss Smith makes Mr Hogan look good!!!
